Notice

Dear Students,

It gives us immense pleasure to announce that Bihar government is all set to re-open educational institutions from January 4, 2021 for regular classes under strict Covid-19 safety protocols. Therefore, College will resume offline classes after long gap from January 11, 2021, sincerely following government Corona advisory.

Students and their respective guardians are advised to get ready and make all possible preparations as College has geared up to hold offline classes. Students are instructed to maintain basic discipline on the College campus and attend classes regularly to reap maximum academic benefits of classroom teaching. As you know, according to University norms, 75 percent attendance is mandatory to appear for end semester University examination.
