Notice

Dear Students,

With abundance of pleasure all students are informed that College annual function is being organized on December 17, 2021 at Ravindra Bhawan, Patna with much fervour and grandeur by Institute of Management and Planning & Advanced Computer Training (IMPACT).

The sole purpose of organizing cultural event is to encourage the students to exhibit talents, remove stage fear, develop communication and cognitive skills, besides boosting up confidence and team work.

Students from all streams are advised to take part in College annual function and showcase talents and skills at this platform. Such extra-curricular activities are of absolutely great importance in fostering students' creativity and all-round development for their professional growth.

Owing to this reason, all classes will remain suspended from December 12, 2021 to December 17, 2021. You will soon be informed about the re-opening of academic activities through notice.

Interested students can contact following officials to know details of programme:
