Notice

Dear students,

It is a pleasure to inform 6th Semester students from BBA, BCA, B.Com (P) and BA(JMC) streams of session 2021-24 that College management, to brighten-up computer knowledge of students, has made the decision to commence 30-day long certification course free of cost from 15 May 2024 at City campus, RPS More, Patna.

Under this certification course, students will be imparted knowledge about HTML, C++, Java and Python with a view to enabling students to improve their insight into computer skills and make them future-ready.

It is mandatory for students to attend at least 24 out of 30 Days of classes from 10:00 AM to 12:00 Noon with utmost sincerity, in other words students are required to maintain a minimum of 80 percent attendance. Student will be deprived of obtaining certificate, in case they fall short on requisite attendance.

Interested students will have to undergo registration process at College during office hours before joining certification course without paying any fee.

Over and above, students are required to attend aforementioned classes in uniform as prescribed by College management and uphold the dignity of College all the time inside and outside the campus, failing which they may face disciplinary action.

Take a serious note of it.
